

40 Questions for The Unchurched

What books help you when you are grieving or feel life's unfair?

Tell me about a beautiful church service you've attended.

Do you have family members who were devoted Christians?

Do you own a Bible?

Give me a list of Bible stories you've heard.

Do you have a favorite Bible verse?

If someone invited you to church, what would you say?

How would you describe God?

Was the world created?

How do you answer spiritual questions from your children?

Is there a song that leaves you feeling in touch with the divine?

Who do you think Jesus of Nazareth was?

What is your understanding of God?

How would you describe the Holy Spirit?

What do you know of the Trinity?

Would you have interest in studying the Bible outside of a church setting?

Do you have a prayer life?

How do you understand the relationship between science and religion?

When is the last time you attended a church service?

Tell me about your church experiences as a child.

Did your parents attend church?

Can it seem like Christianity is a religion of hypocrisy?

What do you think happens to a person when they die?

Have you attended worship services of other faiths?

What was it like worshipping with others?

Do you see Church playing a role in our world today?

Define Church for me.

Are there people outside of your blood relatives you consider family?

In your own words, describe the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Have your children asked about going to church?

How is Christianity different from other religions?

What do you wish the Church did better?

Tell me about a godly person you've admired.

Do you have a favorite hymn?

What's your favorite Christmas carol?

Have you been involved in a Bible study?

Tell me about a beautiful church or cathedral you've visited.

What's a typical Sunday look like for you?

Where do you feel closest to God?

Why don't you go to church?

Would you go to church with me?